

Wonnacott Farm Organic Produce
Terms and conditions for sale of turkey poults.

1. Any order is subject to our acceptance in writing.
2. Whilst we will take every precaution and make every effort to supply the ordered number of poults on the agreed dates, no liability can be accepted for failing to supply due to infertility of eggs, seasonal conditions, fire, disease, mechanical breakdown or occurrences over which we have no control.
3. We will not accept liability for any consequential loss arising from failure to complete an order.
4. If for any reason, we cannot supply an order, any deposit paid in advance will be returned to the customer.
5. If the customer wishes to cancel or amend an order we will make every effort to sell the poults elsewhere. If this is not possible, the deposit paid by the customer will not be returned.
6. Every precaution will be taken to supply healthy stock. All stock is sold as seen at the time of collection. No liability can be accepted for any problems that arise subsequently and no liability can be accepted for any consequential loss arising from the supply of poults.
7. The ownership of goods shall be transferred to the customer only when we have received full payment.
